Maude Adams Alarms Menonites

Quiet Folk in Lancaster County, Pa., Worried Because Actress Ob- serves Them.

NEW HOLLAND, Pa., Sept. 6.—Menonites, Dunkards and Amish, the "plain people" of Lancaster county, are exercised over the rumor that Maude Adams, the actress, is among them studying their peculiarities, their good points, their faults, their customs and their costumes.

The natives believe that the actress is absorbing "local atmosphere" that she may star in a dramatized version of "Tillie, the Menonite Maid," a novel, which has been received with interest in this locality.

Some of the residents doubt the story of the mysterious actress, but many accept it, and view with apprehension a dramatic representation of their quaint characteristics, and the countryside teems with gossip and suppressed excitement.

MUST LET NEUTRALS ALONE.

Russian Volunteer Fleet Steamers Given Orders From Czar.

ZANZIBAR, Island of Zanzibar, Sept. 6.—The British cruiser Forte early this morning found the Russian volunteer fleet steamers St. Petersburg and Smolensk within the three-mile limit and communicated to them the orders of the Russian Government to desist from interference with neutral shipping. The commanders of the Russian vessels said they would forthwith proceed to Europe.

Word was brought in yesterday by the German steamer Kron Prinz that the St. Petersburg and Smolensk were coaling in territorial waters. The Forte immediately proceeded to search and found the Russian vessels. They were not coaling, but after the orders of the Russian Government had been delivered to them the Smolensk and St. Petersburg joined a German collier and proceeded to Dares-Salaam on the African coast, twenty-five miles south of Zanzibar. The Forte returned here this afternoon.

Acting Secretary Oliver immediately replied by telegraph, saying: "The commanding general, Department of the Lakes, has today been directed by wire to deliver at Fort Sheridan, the additional soldiers desired on demand of proper authorities, with a view of their appearance at a preliminary hearing before a committing magistrate. Department will take pleasure in cooperating with civil authorities in bringing guilty parties to trial."

The hearing was continued until September 20.

One hundred and fifty of these coins were found, and but for a perceptible lightness, are exceptionally good counterfeits. Daly will be held here for appearance before the United States court, although the Idaho Sheriff is en route to take him back to Salmon City.

WORE ODD COSTUME.

It Enabled a Trusty to Make His Es- cape From Prison.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Private Frank Reese, an army prisoner serving one year on Governor's Island for desertion, has escaped in an unusual manner. Reese was a model prisoner, and as a "trusty" had acquired the complete confidence of Capt. Horton of the Eighth infantry, quartermaster of the island.

Capt. Horton left the post Saturday night for Manassas, Va., to take part in the maneuvers. A company of coast artillery not familiar with the prisoners, was detailed to the post in place of the troops sent south, so that Reese's flight was greatly facilitated. When the Captain went away he gave the prisoner a key to his house and ordered him to take care of things.

After Reese disappeared a search of the Captain's quarters showed that the prisoner had gone away in a peculiar disguise. He had donned a dress coat and shirt, a big red necktie and a pair of riding breeches. This novel outfit he topped off with a silk hat, and boldly walked to the landing place and took the next boat to New York. His odd costume caused much amusement, but no person spoke to him, and when the boat landed at the battery he lost no time in disappearing.

A search for Reese later by the guard disclosed the identity of the person who had furnished so much amusement to the sentries, who were much chagrined over the escape.

She was almost starved, as nothing had passed her lips since Sunday, when she left home. She was taken to Defiance by Sheriff John.

Great Labor War Is Near an End

Proposition Submitted to the Unions Providing for Calling the Strike Off.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—The Allied Trades council today decided to submit to the unions the proposition for settlement of the stockyards strike. According to the statement of Cass Schmidt, vice-president of the Butchers' union, the proposition upon which the unions are to vote provided for calling off the strike, the men to be re-employed as soon as possible, the skilled hands to receive the former scale of wages and the abandonment of the office of steward by the unions.

Strikers in the other striking centers also assembled today, by order of President Donnelly, for the purpose of taking a referendum vote to declare the strike off.

Apply for Old Jobs.

Early this morning when, according to the packers, more than 1000 of the strikers applied for their old jobs and were taken back. Men began to seek work a few hours before the time set for a meeting of the Allied Trades conference board, which, representing twenty-two trades involved in the strike, was, as seemed to be the general impression, to consider the question of submitting to the unions whether the strike should be called off or not.

No Agreement With Union.

There was talk among the strikers at the yards about "terms of settlement." Officials of the packing companies, however, declared that no terms of settlement had been reached, that strikers applying for their old places would be reinstated without discrimination, but no agreement would be made with the union.

Fearful to Wait Action.

Meetings of all local unions involved had been called for today to hear the result of the deliberations of the Allied Trades board. But many of the men who have been idle for eight weeks feared to wait their action. So it was that a thousand applied for work. Expecting all would be ordered by the unions to go back tomorrow they went today to make sure of their places.

Light Vote Being Cast.

Up to midnight not over 7000 out of the 20,000 men said to be on strike had cast their votes. But many of the men who have been idle for eight weeks feared to wait their action. So it was that a thousand applied for work. Expecting all would be ordered by the unions to go back tomorrow they went today to make sure of their places.

Will Defeat Abandonment.

Unofficial reports of the result of the balloting in Chicago on the proposed abandonment of the strike indicate that the men will defeat the proposed abandonment of the strike. The result of the balloting by the first three unions, reporting tonight is said to have been 1201 for remaining on strike and but 142 for returning to work.

SLAIN IN COLD BLOOD.

East St. Louis Man Confesses to Mur- der of Two Men.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Sept. 6.—According to statements made tonight to Chief of Police Purdy by Louis Kane, formerly a barkeeper in the Yellow Dog saloon, the latter is guilty of killing the two men found dead under mysterious circumstances near Black Bridge last night.

Kane, in his statement, says that his reason for killing Reynolds, a white man, and Green, a negro, was that they were strike-breakers. He told Purdy that he had been formerly employed as a barkeeper, and although he had surrendered his card, he was a "strong union man" and had used every means in his power to further the cause of unionism.

In describing the killing Kane told Chief Purdy that he and several striking butchers had had an argument with Reynolds, and that the latter made a motion as though to draw a revolver. Kane says that he then shot Reynolds through the heart and hid his body in the bushes.

According to Kane's statement to the police, he killed Reynolds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. After closing the saloon at 4 o'clock at night, Kane says, he started to go home, and while crossing the Black Bridge recognized Green, who was approaching him, as a strike-breaker. Kane says that he hid behind a support of the bridge until Green was within a few feet of him, when he placed his revolver on a ledge and fired, the bullet penetrating Green's heart.

Kane was arrested on suspicion on the night of the discovery of the two bodies.

MONTANA MAN SAILS AIRSHIP

Travels Over World's Fair Course.

Demonstrated to All That His Machine Is Di- rigible.

Scarcity of Power Prevented Its Be- ing Propelled Without Great Difficulty Against Wind.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—T. C. Benbow, a Montana aeronaut, is the first man to sail an airship over the World's fair aeronautic course. He made a trial ascension today and demonstrated that his machine is dirigible, but, owing to scarcity of power, he was unable to propel it without great difficulty against the wind.

Easily Handled.

The Benbow airship ascended to a height of from 150 to 200 feet, and, starting from about the center of the course, sailed as far as the east gate before descending. The descent was made in a straight path and the machine was then led back to the starting point.

Cigar-Shaped Ship.

The airship consists of a cigar-shaped balloon and an aluminum car. It has a 10-horsepower engine, run by hydrogen gas. The bag is about seventy feet long and has sixteen propeller blades, four on each wheel, and two wheels on each side of the car. The bag has a capacity of 14,000 cubic feet and the hydrogen gas which it holds has a lifting power of 900 pounds.

Vermont Remains in Republican Column

Plurality for Bell for Governor Will Be in Neighborhood of 32,000.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Sept. 6.—Vermont today elected a Governor and other State officers, two members of Congress, thirty State Senators and one Representative from each city and town. As was expected, the Republicans were generally victorious, electing their entire ticket and maintaining control of the Legislature by the usual large majority. The day was passed without incident. The day was clear and the vote was normal for a Presidential year.

Congress and Legislature.

David J. Foster of Burlington was elected to Congress from the First district, and Kittredge Haskins of Brattleboro from the Second district.

The complexion of the Legislature is practically unchanged. This indicates that Senator Redfield Proctor will be re-elected.

Campaign Hard Fought.

The campaign was hard fought by both of the leading parties, Democrats bending their efforts to a reduction of the Republican majority of 31,000 given to W. W. Stickney for Governor in 1900. Returns received at midnight indicate that the Republicans elected the head of their ticket by a plurality equal to, or not greater than, that returned for Stickney.

Plurality Larger Than Ever.

Election returns from 30 out of the 246 cities and towns of the State give Bell, Republican, 28,500; Porter, Democrat, 12,500. The same places in 1900 gave Stickney, Republican, 38,248; Porter, Democrat, 14,555. These figures show a slight falling off in the vote of both parties and indicate the election of Bell by about 25,000 plurality.

KUROPATKIN IS STILL SILENT

St. Petersburg Has No Word From Him.

Whole Nation Is Anxious About Fate of His Army.

It Is Believed That an Order to Mobi- lize Several Army Corps Will Issue.

The dearth of immediate press and official dispatches from the present actual seat of war of the far Eastern struggle continues. It is admitted by the Russian War office that no telegrams whatever were received from Gen. Kuropatkin bearing Tuesday's date, the last message to the Emperor from the General being dated September 5 and briefly telling that the army was advancing northward; that it had extricated itself from a dangerous position; that there was constant cannonading of the rear guard, and that the losses on that day were about 100. The situation, in the light of the latest information, may be summed up as follows:

Pushing on to Mukden.

The Russian forces are pushing on to Mukden, greatly impeded by heavy roads and floods, conducting an orderly retreat, and followed step by step by the Japanese. Details of the fighting and of the exact position of the opposing armies are lacking.

Rear Guard Not Annihilated.

The report that Kuropatkin's rear guard has been annihilated and that the Russian forces are in danger of being surrounded is denied by the Russian general staff. The Russian War office is entirely confident that the retreat is slowly, but surely, being effected.

What Tokio Says.

From Tokio comes the official report that the bulk of the Russian forces is still at Yen Tai. The Japanese Field Marshal, in an extended report of the fighting up to September 4, says that the Russians burned all the railroad bridges over the Taitse river, and predicts that, while the Japanese list of casualties is not yet completed, the losses will prove heavy.

Russian Commissary Trains.

The heads of Kuropatkin's long commissary trains have passed through Mukden and are continuing northward. The attack on Port Arthur continues and Chinese arriving at Chefoo say the Russian garrison expects a general land and sea attack today (Wednesday).

NO NEWS FROM FRONT.

Russian War Office Without Advice From Kuropatkin.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—There has been no news from Gen. Kuropatkin since Monday afternoon. This is attributed to the interruption of direct communication with the commander-in-chief, owing to the transfer
